

PROF. A. INDRAYAN TRAVEL AWARD FOR SENIOR MEMBERS

This award was proposed from the year 2011 through a donation of Ra 130,000 by Dr A. Indrayan.

The candidate for the award should be a life member of ISMS of age 60 years or more with no funding for attending the ISMS conference.

Nature of the award

The selected candidate will be given a grant of actual travel and stay expenses not exceeding Rs 7,000/- for the purpose of attending the annual conference of the Society.

The award will be presented during an annual conference of ISMS where the candidate must be present.

Submission of entries for the award

Announcement inviting entries for the award will be made by the General Secretary of the Society along with the other awards. An applicant should be aged 60 years or more on the 31st March of the year of award and should be a life member of the Society at the time of applying.

Process of the award

Selection of the awardee will be made by the Awards Committee of the ISMS every year and will be granted the same year. In case there is no applicant, a committee consisting of the present, past and future Presidents (President-elect) can select and invite any senior life member (of age 60 years or more) at their discretion to avail the award and attend the conference.

The fund of Rs 130,000/- is expected to earn an interest of Rs 10,000/- per year after tax, if any. After the award of Rs 7,000/-, the remaining interest will be deposited back to the fund so that it progressively increases and the amount of the award can also be accordingly increased once every three years. In case no award is granted in any year, the entire interest amount will be deposited to the fund.
